

CLAIM FOR TEMPORARY LODGING EXPENSE ALLOWANCE (TLE)

TLE is payable for temporary lodgings occupied by the member prior to detachment from the old permanent duty station and after reporting to the permanent duty station when per diem is not otherwise payable. TLE is payable for temporary lodgings occupied by the dependents prior to departure from the old permanent duty station or designated place within the United States and after reporting to the new permanent duty place within the United States when per diem is not otherwise payable.

TLE is authorized for:

1. A total of 10 days in connection with a permanent change of station between two permanent stations located in the United States.
2. Ten days in connection with a permanent change of station from a permanent station in the United States.
3. Two days in connection with a permanent change of station from a permanent station in the United States to a permanent station located outside the United States.

Temporary lodgings for which TLE is authorized must in fact be a temporary place of residence. Lodgings occupied upon initial arrival at a new permanent station location which are permanent type residence quarters into which a member moves his/her household goods and continues occupancy indefinitely will not be considered temporary lodgings for TLE. There is no entitlement to TLE incident to a member's first or last permanent duty station.
